

A MIX-UP AT THE ZOO

Daisy has just had her first day working at the zoo. This is her letter to her grandmother, but she's put the names of the animals in the wrong places.

Dear Gran,

The zoo was great. The camel spent a long time swinging in its tree. The dolphin made a lot of noise, hee-hawing, but I didn't mind. The donkey swam happily in its pool. The giraffe, with its two humps, gave the children rides. The monkey, with its long neck was able to reach the leaves high up in the trees.

Lots of love,

Daisy

Can you sort out her letter, putting the animals in the right places?
