

SIMILES	METAPHORS

The hose is a slippery snake that slithers across the lawn	The car was the colour of blood
Caitlin's smile was as wide as the sea	The little boy stood as straight as a soldier
He was a tiger in the board meeting	It was as blue as the sky
The bed was as soft as a cotton ball	The fence was a row of soldiers standing to attention around the perimeter
The wave is a dog rushing to the beach for its bone	It was as cold as a freezer on the mountain top
