This is Sam the Seagull. He lives in Worcester (a funny place for a seagull to live as it's no-where near the sea!).

What do you think seagulls are thinking at the moment about humans not being about so much? Do they love the peace and quiet? Or are they missing stealing people's chips?

Have a go at writing Sam's thoughts- write a diary entry for Sam. Remember to include important thoughts, important events and thoughts about the future.

Tips for writing a diary entry:

1. It is written in the PAST tense.
2. It uses personal pronouns such as 'I, we, my and me'
3. It talks about feelings
4. It uses time conjunctions such as 'before, next, after'
5. It talks about important events.
6. It describes the places where the events happened.

These are only a few tips- use the checklist document at the bottom of the webpage to find 3 sheets. These sheets are BRONZE, SILVER & GOLD checklists, Bronze has 1 star, Silver has 2 stars and Gold has 3 stars. Choose the checklist that you feel is right for you- don't forget to challenge yourself!
