

Plural or Possessive?

7. Look at how the sentences below have been punctuated.

- A. If you aren't careful then you will drop mum's favourite glass'es!
- B. The teacher's face was bright red when he found the children who broke the windows.
- C. How colourful the flowers are in the florist's window!
- D. "Can you collect all the answer book's please?" asked the examiner.

Correct	Incorrect

Sort the sentences into the table.

VF
HW/Ext

8. Find the two sentences which need an apostrophe for possession adding.

- A. The rabbits hutch needed cleaning out, but no one wanted to do it.
- B. "Are those the painters brushes?" asked the builder.
- C. We collected all the old clothes and shoes, and took them to the charity shop.

Circle all the words that are plurals.

VF
HW/Ext

9. Amara is checking a sentence for punctuation.

The farmer walked towards the pigs who lived next to the horses barn.

I don't think that the word pigs needs an apostrophe because it is a plural but the word horses does.

Is Amara correct? Explain why.

AR
HW/Ext