Jesus told this parable to try and explain how people behaved when they heard his advice on how to live in a good Christian way. Read the words in the text boxes carefully and then match up the statements in the boxes with the pictures.

People try hard to live their lives in a Christian way, working hard to be kind, caring and forgiving. They try hard not to sin, (make mistakes) and their choices mean they grow well as people and cause happiness around them.

These people do not listen to the ideas of Jesus and ignore the rules of being a good Christian. They live life how they want to and do not care very much about others and do not try to be kind or helpful.

These people listen to the ideas of Jesus and try to live in a Christian way for a while. But then they get fed up of working hard and helping others and become selfish and give up.
