What messages do these stories give?

If we could chat with Siddhartha what else do you think he might say about how we should treat animals?

What did the king Learn after seeing what the monkey King did? How did he change?

When you think of the Christian values Jesus tried to teach in the parables can you see any links with these Buddhist stories?

Working hard to be a good person.

Treating others equally.

Looking after the world around us

Kindness and love for others.

Being a king for everyone
