

Writing an Autobiography

Create your timeline.

To help you- you may want to have a look around for some photographs of you from when you were younger- this helps to remember things more clearly. Take a look at my example.

My Timeline:

13th December 1993- Born at the Countess of Chester Hospital, Cheshire.

11th August 1995- Flower girl at older sister Kerry's wedding.

13th July 1996- Younger sister, Alexandra was born.

September 1996- Started ballet dancing.

19th April 1998- My older sister gave birth to my niece, Aimee.

September 1998- Started in Reception at Rossmore County Primary School

27th July 2000- My older sister gave birth to my niece, Katie.

July 2005- Started secondary school at Sutton High.

13th July 2007- Had appendix removed at Countess of Chester Hospital.

December 2008- Got puppy, Max.

July 2010- School prom and GCSEs

June 2012- Finished A-Levels

July 2012- Went to teach horseriding in Minnesota, USA.

September 2013- Moved to Worcester and began studying to be a teacher at the University of Worcester.

October 2013- My brother had a daughter, Sophie.

July 2014- Went to teach horseriding in Minnesota, USA.

July 2015- Went to teach horseriding in Minnesota, USA.

July 2016- Graduated from University

September 2016- Got first job as a teacher.

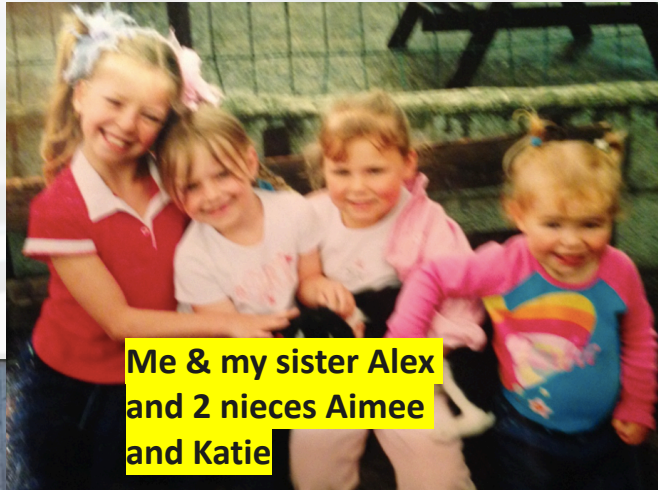

September 2018- Moved to be a teacher at Abberley.

April 2019- Bought first home.

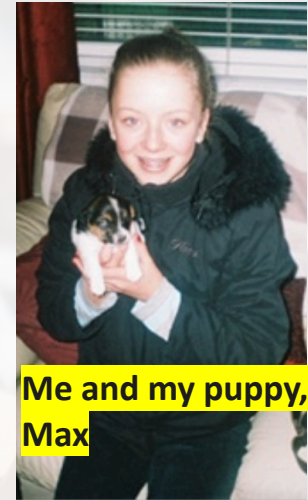

Some photos that inspired my timeline.

Me in America riding a horse called Cappy.

Me & my sister Alex and 2 nieces Aimee and Katie

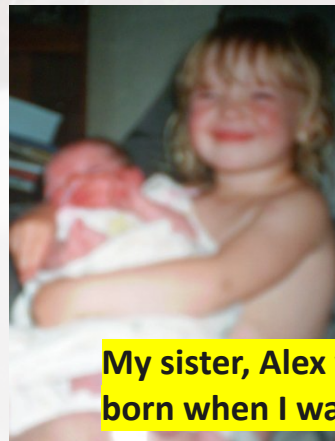

Me and my puppy, Max

Year 1

My prom 2010

My sister, Alex was born when I was 2.

Year 7

My niece, Katie

Some photos that inspired my timeline.

