

Beliefs About Freedom

People should have complete freedom to choose their beliefs. (Sikhism)

"In the process of gaining our rightful place, we must not be guilty of wrongful deeds. Let us not seek to satisfy our thirst for freedom by drinking from the cup of bitterness and hatred. We must forever conduct our struggle on the high plane of dignity and discipline."
(Martin Luther King, Jr., Christianity)

Freedom is being free from suffering. (Buddha, Buddhism)

"No one's freedom should violate the freedom of others." (Islam)

Moksha (freedom) can be achieved through good deeds. (Hinduism)

"Let my people go, so they may serve me." (Judaism)

"For to be free is not merely to cast off one's chains, but to live in a way that respects and enhances the freedom of others." (Nelson Mandela, Christianity)

Freedom of reason, thought, feeling and will. (Hinduism)

"Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God." (1 Peter 2:16, Christianity)

Freedom is freedom from suffering. (Buddhism)

"And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." (John 8:32, Christianity)

Freedom is achieved by doing the right thing and avoiding doing the wrong thing. (Sikhism)
