

WHO'S GOT IT RIGHT?

Here are two children talking about some television programmes they've been watching. They don't always use the correct words. Underline any wrong words that have been used and put a tick or a cross in the boxes under their speech bubbles.

Did you watch the one with the burglar climbing up the drainpipe?			Yes. I thought that bugler was going to fall before he reached the top window?

I saw that programme too. Right from the start, that man looked very spacious .			You're right. There was something very strange and suspicious about him.
X			✓
Do you think he was an armchair burglar or a professional?			Definitely amateur , considering how easily the police caught him.
X			✓
Well, the police officer in charge was very sufficient . She found the evidence.			Yes. She was a lot more efficient than her partner with the moustache.
X			✓
It was funny when the thief said he broke in because there was a cue at the bank.			I don't know what you're laughing at. There was a queue at the bank!

Jamila and Sanjeev, like different things. Here they are talking about their hobbies.

Hi. My name is Jamila. I'm very interested in anything to do with geography. All sorts of information easily stays in my memory. The names of capital cities, mountain ranges – I love all that stuff. I'd be very reluctant to stop my studies. In fact, when I'm older I hope to find a solution to some of the world's environmental problems.
