

Special Windows

Look at these photographs of special stained-glass windows.

Can you spot some of the symbols of Christianity?

Fire      A dove      water      circle
triangle      light

These windows are there to impress or inspire the people who visit the church. They are there to make people stop and say wow and think about important things.

Which is your favourite? Why?

Next do an image search for stained glass gallery.

Can you find three more windows that you like best.
