Priority 1: To enhance and enrich our curriculum provision to ensure it meets the specific needs of Abberley's context and supports long-term knowledge retention among pupils

Priority 2: Further developing a comprehensive, well-structured reading curriculum, aimed at improving reading outcomes and fostering a love of reading for the lowest 20% of readers

Priority 3: To continue to embed the EYFS curriculum effectively, ensuring all staff are confident in delivering high-quality teaching and provision that challenges and supports children's learning.

Priority 4: To ensure the theologically rooted Christian vision is a living reality, enabling all pupils and adults to flourish.
